

Did you know:

In April 2019, Bayfield & Ashland County voters will elect more than 150 local officials. Currently, 20% of the region's locally elected decision-makers are women, 80% are men. While voter choice is the backbone of democracy, most candidates will run unopposed.

This is your chance to explore running for office in a supportive environment.

Elected Office 101: A Workshop for Candidates Considering Local Office

Thurs, Nov 15, 2018
5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

at the Northern Great Lakes
Visitor Center

Workshop will include speakers and small group discussions, as well as opportunities for mentoring and individualized planning.

We'll cover important topics:

- * The "I'm Not Qualified" myth
- * Dealing with negative feedback
- * Best practices in a challenging race
- * Small town politics: The art of disagreeing with neighbors
- * Demystifying leadership
- * The responsibilities of a local elected official

This nonpartisan event is FREE and OPEN TO EVERYONE!
Light refreshments provided.

For more information call: 715.373.6014 or www.bayfield.uwex.edu

An AA/EEO employer, University of Wisconsin-Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title VI, Title IX and ADA requirements.